From being trapped in the horrific and unending nightmare of human trafficking to being set free and starting a new life, Free the Captives is giving hope to Houston girls.

Founded in 2009, Free the Captives is a faith-based, anti-human trafficking 501(c)3 non-profit that fights the exploitation and trafficking of Houston's youth. We engage and mobilize the community while partnering with other non-profits, law enforcement, and government agencies in the fight against modern day slavery.

We rescue teenaged trafficking victims in Houston by working closely with law enforcement. We restore the lives of the victims by providing much needed jobs, GED tutoring, scholarships, housing and mentoring. We teach practical life skills as well as develop work ethic and entrepreneurship. Our staff also helps the girls get identification, go to medical appointments, and apply for jobs—while also assisting them with material needs such as clothing, groceries, and furniture.

Free the Captives' primary purpose is to fight the human trafficking of teenagers in Houston and help these girls rebuild their lives through the love of Jesus Christ.

Free the Captives is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Our federal tax ID is 45-2214142. Your sponsorship is tax deductible minus the fair market value of the items included in each sponsorship level.

Did you know that Houston is a major hub for Human Trafficking?

The average age of a girl being trafficking in Houston is between the ages of 12 to 14 years old.

The first step to combating human trafficking is community awareness and education.

FREEDOM FEST

will engage the Houston community and bring awareness to the human trafficking occurring in our own neighborhoods and city. Immediately after the 5K, there will be a free festival for participants and the surrounding neighborhood. The festival is designed to educate the local community about human trafficking and how they can keep their kids safe. Free the Captives will provide:

FREE FOOD, GAMES, TALKS, AND MUSIC.
